

Praca

badly paid – źle opłacany

My summer job was so ___ (źle płatny) that I earned less than my little brother selling lemonade.

Being a dragon-sitter sounds cool, but trust me — it's badly paid and really hot.

well-paid – dobrze płatny

My cousin got a well-paid job designing video game characters — that's the dream!

Being a YouTuber can be a ___ (dobrze płatną) job, but only if your cat does something hilarious.

challenging – ambitny

Learning how to code was challenging at first,
but now I enjoy it.

That escape room was so ____ (ambitny) that we almost argued over a plastic key!

demanding – wymagający, trudny

Being a student can be demanding, especially when you have five tests in one week!

My new dance instructor is really _____ (wymagający), but I know I'm improving fast.

satisfying – zadowalający

Finishing a difficult game level is really _____ (zadowalający) – almost as good as eating pizza!

It's so satisfying to clean your room and find money under the bed!

hardworking – pracowity

If being hardworking was an Olympic sport, Lisa would definitely win the gold medal.

Jake is so ___ (pracowity) that even his video games get finished early!

reliable – solidny, niezawodny

Emma is really reliable — she always helps me with homework when I'm stuck.

My phone is ___ (niezawodny), so I never worry about it breaking during an important game.

run a business – prowadzić firmę

My cousin wants to ___ (prowadzić firmę) selling slime, because kids love it and it's super fun!

It's hard to run a business when your cat thinks the office is their personal nap spot!

be off sick – być na zwolnieniu chorobowym

Yesterday, I was off sick, but I still managed to watch all my favorite shows in bed!

My friend ___ (był na zwolnieniu) last week,
but I think he just wanted an extra day of video games!

make money – zarabiać pieniądze

I started selling my old games online to make money for the new console.

Some teenagers ___ (zarabiają pieniądze) by walking dogs, but I just make money by convincing my parents!

pay rise – podwyżka

After working hard all year, I finally got a ____ (podwyżkę) – time to celebrate!

My little brother thinks a pay rise means more pocket money from our parents.

pension – emerytura

People save money during their working years to have a comfortable _____ (emerytura) after retirement.

The government provides a pension to support elderly citizens who no longer work.

retire – przejść na emeryturę

My dad wants to ____ (przejść na emeryturę) early and spend all day playing video games – lucky him!

I will retire when I'm 80, but until then, I'll enjoy school (maybe).

retirement – emerytura

I can't wait for ___ (emerytura) – just kidding!
I still need to finish school first.

My grandpa says retirement means finally having time to do nothing — and he's an expert already!

salary – pensja (miesięczna)

My dad says his ___ (pensja) is like magic – it disappears as soon as he gets it!

If my salary was as big as my homework pile, I would be rich by now!

wage – zapłata tygodniowa,
dniówka (przy pracy fizycznej)

I finally got a part-time job, but my _____ (tygodniówka) is so small that I can only buy
one candy bar a day!

My little brother thinks his allowance is a wage
– he even asks for overtime pay when he does extra chores!

unemployment benefit – zasiłek dla bezrobotnych

When I was unemployed last summer, the unemployment benefit helped me pay for pizza and video games – my priorities.

Some people say ___ (zasiłek dla bezrobotnych) is boring, but I say it's the perfect excuse to watch lots of series without feeling bad!

unemployed – bezrobotny

After losing my job, I felt like a professional Netflix watcher – officially unemployed!

My dad's been ___ (bezrobotny) for a while, so now he's the family's top chef and dishwasher!

employ – zatrudniać

The new café decided to ___ (zatrudnić) me because I promised to make the best pancakes ever!

If they employ me as their team captain, I'll make sure we never lose a game (or at least try)!

employment – zatrudnienie

After summer ____ (zatrudnieniu) at the café,
I'm basically a coffee expert now.

Finding employment is harder than beating the final boss in a video game!

experience – doświadczenie

My summer job gave me a lot of _____ (doświadczenia) – like how to survive without coffee!

Having experience in video games doesn't always help in real life... but it helps me impress my friends!

job interview – rozmowa kwalifikacyjna

He wore a Spider-Man tie to his ___ (rozmowę kwalifikacyjną) and still got the job. Legend.

She was more nervous at her first job interview than during a maths test. And that says a lot.

staff – personel

The museum ___ (personel) got scared when a teenager tried to ride the dinosaur skeleton.

At our school, the staff know all the gossip before the students do.