

Technologia

use the Internet – korzystać z Internetu

I use the Internet to do my homework.

I usually _____ to watch tutorials when I don't understand my homework.

send a message – wysłać wiadomość

I sent a message to my teacher to ask about the homework.

He didn't answer the phone, so I decided _____ him _____ instead.

I wanted to send a message to my crush... but accidentally sent it to my teacher. Now he knows I like his eyes.

download an app – pobrać aplikację

She downloaded an app that helps you learn English vocabulary.

Before the trip, I _____ a map _____ not to get lost in the city.

check emails – sprawdzać e-maile

I check my emails every morning before school.

My teacher always tells us _____ our _____
for important school announcements.

I checked my emails and found one from my teacher titled “URGENT!!!” – it was just homework.

Every time I check my emails, I get excited... and it’s always from an online shop I’ve never used.

charge your phone – naładować telefon

She always charges her phone before going out with friends.

I forgot to _____ last night, and now
it's already at 5%.

go online – połączyć się z
Internetem, wejść do sieci

I couldn't go online yesterday because there was a power cut.

Many students _____ to find information for their school projects.

My parents think "go online" means I'm studying. I'm actually designing memes.

log in / log out – zalogować się /
wylogować się

You need to log in before you can access the online lesson.

She always _____ of her accounts when she uses a shared computer.

scroll through – przewijać (ekran, media społecznościowe)

I was scrolling through my Instagram feed when I saw your message.

He _____ news websites every morning
during breakfast.

Scrolling through memes is my cardio. Who needs the gym anyway?

upload a photo – wrzucić zdjęcie (do Internetu)

I uploaded a photo of my cat, and it quickly went viral!

They _____ a group _____ after the school trip to remember the day.

I uploaded a photo of my breakfast... because everyone clearly needs to see my toast.

I wanted to upload a photo of my cat, but she looked better than me, so I changed it to a selfie.

take a screenshot – zrobić zrzut
ekranu

Can you take a screenshot of the schedule and send it to me?

She _____ of the funny comment and shared it with her friends.

back up files – zrobić kopię zapasową plików

Make sure you back up your files regularly to avoid losing your work.

Before resetting my laptop, I _____ all my school documents / files.

restart the computer –
zrestartować komputer

The screen froze again, so I had to restart the computer twice.

-----the computer solved the problem
with the slow browser.

click on a link – kliknąć w link

I clicked on the wrong link and ended up on a strange website.

_____ the link in the message to join the online meeting.

create an account – założyć konto

To play the game online, you have to create an account first.

I _____ on a language-learning website yesterday.

To use LEARNOTE, you need to receive a link from your teacher and create an account.

To start using LEARNOTE, first get a link from your teacher and then create your account.

update software – zaktualizować oprogramowanie

The app stopped working, so I had to update
the software.

My phone reminded me to _____ last night.

go viral – rozprzestrzenić się
błyskawicznie w sieci

Her TikTok dance went viral overnight!

I wish my dog video would go viral too.

send somebody a direct message
– wysłać do kogoś prywatną
wiadomość

Don't comment — just DM me the answer!

He DM'd his favourite gamer and got a reply!

I'll send you a direct message later.

be glued to the screen
– być przyklejonym do ekranu (nie
móc się oderwać)

She was glued to the screen watching
Korean dramas all weekend.

My brother is always glued to his tablet.

crash (a device/app)
– zawiesić się, przestać działać (o aplikacji/urządzeniu)

My game crashed right before I won the level!

This old phone crashes every time I open Instagram.

tech-savvy
– dobrze znający się na technologii

My grandma is surprisingly tech-savvy – she fixed the Wi-Fi!

Are you tech-savvy enough to build a PC?