

Uczucia Relacje

be bad at – być kiepskim w

I'm bad at drawing, but I enjoy it.

He is _____ (kiepski w) remembering names.

be afraid of – bać się

I'm afraid of spiders.

She _____ (bać się) of flying.

be fond of – lubić coś bardzo

I'm fond of Italian food.

She _____ (lubi czytać) detective stories.

be bored with – być znudzonym czymś

I'm bored with watching the same films again and again.

He _____ (znudził się) his job and decided to quit.

I'm bored with watching the same TikTok dance for the 100th time — even my cat looks unimpressed.

agree with sb – zgadzać się z kimś

I totally agree with you about the new school rules – especially the one that says we can't eat pizza in math class. Outrageous!

She _____ (nie zgadzała się z) her parents about choosing a university.

argue with sb – kłócić się z kimś

I argued with my brother about who would wash the dishes.

I argued with my brother about who ate the last cookie... while he still had crumbs on his face.

They often _____ (kłócić się) with each other about silly things.

They argued about which superhero is cooler – even though neither of them can open a jar without help.

break up with sb – zerwać z kimś

She broke up with her boyfriend after two years.

Mark _____ (zerwał z) Anna because they argued too much.

have a crush on – zadurzyć się w kimś, podkochiwać się w kimś

I had a crush on my lab partner... until he called glue a “snack.”

She _____ (podkochuje się) on the guy from the school band — even though he only knows how to play one note on the triangle.

complain about sth
– narzekać na coś

Students often complain about too much homework.

He _____ (narzekał na) the noise in the hotel.

fall out with sb
– pokłócić się z kimś

I fell out with my best friend over a stupid misunderstanding.

She _____ (pokłóciła się z) her sister and they didn't talk for weeks.

get depressed – wpaść w depresję, być przygnębionym

After failing his exam, he got really depressed.

She _____ (wpadła w depresję) during the long, cold winter.

get divorced – rozwieść się

My aunt and uncle got divorced last year.

They decided to _____ (rozwieść się) after ten years of marriage.

get on sb's nerves
– działać komuś na nerwy

My little brother gets on my nerves when he plays loud music.

The noise from the street really ----- (działa mi na nerwy).

have an argument with sb
– pokłócić się z kimś

I had an argument with my friend about a group project.

She _____ (pokłóciła się ze swoim szefem) and decided to quit.

make up with sb – pogodzić się z kimś

After a big fight, I made up with my best friend.

They _____ (pogodzili się) with each other and are friends again.

run away – uciec

The dog ran away during the storm.

She wanted _____ (uciec) from her problems, but she knew it wasn't the solution.

split up with sb – rozstać się z kimś

They split up after realising they wanted different things.

Tom _____ (rozstał się z) his girlfriend just before the holidays.

make friends – zaprzyjaźnić się, zawrzeć przyjaźń

I made friends with many people during my summer camp.

It's easy to _____ (zawrzeć przyjaźń)
when you join a club.

keep in touch with sb – utrzymywać kontakt z kimś

I keep in touch with my old classmates through social media.

Even after moving abroad, we _____ (utrzymywaliśmy kontakt) by writing emails.

fall in love with – zakochać się w

They fell in love while working together on a project.

She _____ (zakochała się w) Italy during her first visit.

get on well with sb – dobrze się
z kimś dogadywać

I get on well with my neighbours.

She _____ (dogaduje się dobrze z) her classmates.

celebrate – świętować

We celebrated my birthday at a nice restaurant.

They _____ (świętowali) winning the competition with a big party.

cheer sb up – pocieszyć kogoś, rozweselić

I bought her some flowers to cheer her up.

Watching a funny movie _____ (zawsze mnie rozwesela).

hang out with sb
– spędzać z kimś czas

I usually hang out with my friends after school.

He spent the weekend hanging out with his cousins.

share photos – udostępniać zdjęcia

I shared my holiday photos with my family.

She loves _____ (udostępniać) photos of her dog on Instagram.

feel embarrassed

– czuć się zawstydzonym

I felt ____ (zawstydzona) when I waved at someone who wasn't actually waving at me... just fixing their hair.

She felt embarrassed when her stomach growled louder than the teacher's voice during a test.

be in a good mood
– być w dobrym humorze

I was in such a _____ (dobrym humorze) this morning that I didn't even yell at my alarm clock.

She felt embarrassed when her stomach growled louder than the teacher's voice during a test.

be scared of
– bać się czegoś

I'm scared of clowns — especially the ones that smile like they know all my secrets.

He's scared of spiders, but somehow not scared of his little sister when she's angry.

feel nervous

– czuć się zdenerwowanym

I always feel _____ (nerwowy) before a test... even if I've only studied the title.

He felt nervous about his class presentation – especially when he realised he'd left his notes... at home, on the kitchen table.

feel disappointed
– czuć się rozczarowanym

She felt _____ (rozczarowany) because the concert was canceled — but then remembered she forgot to buy tickets anyway.

I felt disappointed when I found out my favorite snack was just an empty bag.

feel excited

– czuć się podekscytowanym

I feel ____ (podekscytowany) about the school trip – mostly because I'll finally escape my little brother for a day!

She felt excited when she found out there would be pizza at the party – priorities, right?

feel confused
– czuć się zdezorientowanym

She felt _____ (zdezorientowana) because her phone's GPS told her to turn left — but there was a wall there.

I felt confused when the teacher said, "This will be easy," but the test was a total puzzle.