World Emoji Day is celebrated on July 17th each year. It's a fun day dedicated to the colorful and expressive world of emojis. Emojis are small pictures used in text messages and social media to express emotions, ideas, and more. On World Emoji Day, people all over the world share their favorite emojis, create emoji-themed art, and even organize emoji-themed events and contests. Emojis have become a universal language, allowing people to communicate across cultures and languages in a fun and engaging way. So, on July 17th, don't forget to celebrate World Emoji Day by sending some of your favorite emojis to friends and family!

My favorite emoji is the Smiling Face with the rosy cheeks. It's the one that always brings a smile to my face whenever I use it. I also really like the Face with Stuck-Out Tongue and Winking Eye emoji because it adds a playful and fun touch to my messages. But out of all the emojis, the Smiling Face with Smiling Eyes is definitely my favorite because it spreads positivity and happiness wherever it goes!

Girl 1: Hey, did you hear about the new holiday at our school?

Girl 2: Yeah, it's so cool! I heard we're going to celebrate International Talk Like a Pirate Day during lunch break today!

Girl 1: No way! That sounds like so much fun. I can't wait to dress up like a pirate and talk in pirate accents all day.

Girl 2: Same here! I'm already planning my pirate costume. It's going to be epic!

Girl 1: Definitely! I wonder what other surprises they have in store for us on Talk Like a Pirate Day. Maybe we'll even have pirate-themed snacks!

Girl 2: That would be awesome! I hope they serve pirate-shaped cookies or something.

Girl 1: Arrr, me too! It's going to be a day to remember, that's for sure! Let's go to check!

Boy 1: Hey, matey! Are you ready for Talk Like a Pirate Day tomorrow?

Boy 2: Aye, matey! I've been thinking about what to wear. I'm going to put on my black pants and white shirt, and then I'll add a red bandana and an eyepatch. What about you?

Boy 1: I'm going all out, matey! I've got my pirate hat, a striped shirt, and a big, shiny belt. And of course, I can't forget the sword!

Boy 2: Wow, you're going to look like a real buccaneer! I'll have to step up my game. Maybe I'll add some gold earrings and a parrot on my shoulder.

Boy 1: Haha, that sounds awesome! We're going to be the fiercest pirates on the seven seas!

Boy 2: Arrr, that we will, matey! It's going to be a swashbuckling good time!

Good morning, everyone!

I hope you're all doing well. I just wanted to take a moment to say how impressed I am with yesterday's festivities. The energy and creativity on display during Talk Like a Pirate Day were simply fantastic. It's moments like these that make our school community so special. So, to all of you who organized and participated in yesterday's event, I want to say a big congratulations. Your hard work and enthusiasm truly made a difference. Keep up the great work, and let's continue to make our school a place where fun and learning go hand in hand!

Enjoy the rest of your day!

Opinion 1. I think organizing Unusual Holidays at school is a great idea! It adds excitement and diversity to the school calendar, making teaching more fun and engaging.

Opinion 2. Unusual Holidays at school might be fun, but I'm not sure if they're worth the effort. We should focus more on academics and traditional school events.

Opinion 3. I love the idea of Unusual Holidays at school! It gives us a chance to express our creativity and individuality. Plus, it's a break from the usual routine.

Opinion 4. I wish our school would organize Unusual Holidays like they do at my friend's school. It sounds like so much fun, and I feel like we're missing out.

Zad. 3.

Organizing International Pillow Fight Day at school had its difficulties. Safety was a big concern, making sure students played safely and didn't get hurt. Cleaning up after the event was also hard, with feathers everywhere. But overall, it was a successful and enjoyable day for everyone. We'll learn from the challenges we faced and make next year's Pillow Fight Day even better."

Zad. 4.

Wypowiedź 1: Oh, there are feathers everywhere. Cleaning up is going to be a problem!

Wypowiedź 2: I don't know what to wear for Talk Like a Pirate Day.

Wypowiedź 3: I need to print a poster, and my printer isn't working. Can I use yours?

Wypowiedź 4: Do you think the teachers will agree to organize International Pillow Fight Day at our school?
