

Kultura

based on (a novel/ a true story)
oparty na powieści/prawdziwej
historii

The film is based on a novel written by a famous British author.

This movie _____ a true story about a girl who climbed Mount Everest.

My opinion is based on facts, not rumors.

be set in – być osadzonym w (czasie lub miejscu akcji)

The book is set in Paris during World War II.

The movie _____ (jest osadzony w) the future, in a world ruled by robots.

be famous for – słynąć z, być
znanym z

This city is famous for its delicious street food.

She _____ (słynie z) writing mystery
novels.

in the background – w tle, na
drugim planie

In the background of the photo, you can see the mountains.

There was soft music playing _____ (w tle)
during the dinner.

in the foreground – na pierwszym planie

In the foreground, there's a girl holding a bunch of flowers.

The painting shows a castle in the background and a knight _____ (na pierwszym planie).

make sense – mieć sens

Your explanation doesn't make sense to me.
Can you repeat it?

It _____ (ma sens) to study a little every day instead of cramming before the test.

recommend sth to sb – polecić
coś komuś

I can recommend this book to anyone who enjoys adventure stories.

My teacher _____ (polecił) a great documentary to me.

a source of inspiration – źródło
inspiracji

Nature is a great source of inspiration for many artists.

Her travels around the world were _____
_____ for her blog.

worth seeing / reading – wart
zobaczenia / przeczytania

That new film is definitely worth seeing –
I loved every minute of it.

This book is _____ if you're interested in science fiction.

can / can't afford to do sth – móc /
nie móc sobie pozwolić na zrobienie czegoś (finansowo lub czasowo)

I can't afford to buy a new phone right now because I'm saving for a trip.

We could finally _____ to go on holiday
abroad after years of staying at home.

think outside the box
– myśleć nieszablonowo,
kreatywnie

To solve this problem, you need to _____ (myśleć nieszablonowo) the box.

She's great at thinking outside the box during group projects.

If you want to finish your homework faster, try thinking outside the box — like inventing a robot that does it for you!

work of art – dzieło sztuki

This painting is a real _____ (dzieło sztuki) – even my little brother couldn't draw that well!

My messy room is definitely not a work of art – more like a disaster zone.

novel – powieść

A _____ (powieść) usually has chapters and a complicated story, unlike a comic book.

I started reading a novel about a detective — it's longer than my entire summer holiday!

short story – opowiadanie

I love ____ (opowiadania) because I can finish one before dinner – unlike novels, which take forever.

A short story is like a quick snack for your brain – tasty and fast!

masterpiece – arcydzieło

That movie was a masterpiece – I laughed, cried, and even spilled my popcorn!

My little sister's drawing of our dog is her _____ (arcydziełem) – even if the dog looks more like a potato.

lyrics – tekst piosenki

I tried to learn the lyrics to my favorite song,
but I only remember “la la la.”

The ____ (tekst piosenki) of this song are so funny, they make me want to dance and laugh
at the same time.

exhibition – wystawa

The art exhibition at school was amazing — I didn't know my classmates were so talented!

At the ___ (wystawie), I saw a sculpture that looked like a giant banana — I still don't get it!

plot – akcja, fabuła

The ___ (fabuła) of the movie was so confusing that even my dog looked puzzled!

I tried to explain the plot of the book, but I forgot everything after the first page.

entertainment – rozrywka

My phone is my main source of ___ (rozrywki)
– except when the battery dies, then it's just a paperweight!

The concert was so boring that even my friend's joke was better entertainment!