Zad. 1

Text 1.1 (dziewczyna)

I was getting ready for school and watching my favourite beauty vlog when the video suddenly stopped. I refreshed the page again and again, but nothing happened. In the end, I had to choose my outfit without any online advice — just me, my mirror and a very confused look.

Text 1.2 (dziewczyna)

At lunch break, my friends and I wanted to take a quick selfie for our group chat. The poses were perfect, the lighting was great – and then we realised there was no internet. The photo stayed on my phone, unseen and unliked, which felt almost tragic.

Text 1.3 (dziewczyna)

After school, I planned a relaxing evening with music and online shopping. Instead, the internet went down completely. I ended up listening to an old CD and trying on clothes I already had. Surprisingly, it wasn't as boring as I expected.

Text 1.4 (dziewczyna)

When the internet stopped working at home, my first reaction was panic. I couldn't message anyone or check social media. After a while, I started talking to my parents and even helped make dinner. It turned out to be a pretty nice evening.

Text 1.5 (dziewczyna)

The next day at school, everyone was talking about the internet breakdown. Some people complained loudly, but others laughed about it. For me, it was a reminder that life doesn't stop when Wi-Fi disappears – even if it feels like it at first.

Zad. 2

2.1 (chłopak)

When the internet suddenly went down, my online game stopped right in the middle of an important match. I was really frustrated because my team was counting on me. After a while, I decided to do something else and finally finished a model I had started weeks earlier. Surprisingly, I enjoyed it much more than I expected.

2.2 (chłopak)

At first, I didn't know what to do without internet – no videos, no chats and no social media. I tried sitting in my room, but I got bored very quickly. In the end, I went outside and started playing football with some guys from my street. It turned out to be the best part of the day.

2.3 (chłopak)

When the Wi-Fi stopped working at home, everyone in my family started complaining at once. I decided to check what was wrong and realised the router just needed restarting. After a few minutes, the internet was back and my parents looked at me like I was a real expert. It felt good to be the hero for a moment.

Without internet, I couldn't play games or talk to my friends, so I lost interest in everything. I tried finding something else to do, but nothing seemed fun enough. In the end, I just lay on my bed, staring at the ceiling and waiting. That hour felt much longer than it really was.

Zad. 3. (chłopak)

Hi, I'm Tom. Yesterday was supposed to be a perfect gaming day, but everything changed when our internet suddenly stopped working. At first, I thought it was just a short problem, so I restarted my computer and waited. Unfortunately, nothing helped. My parents said the internet provider was having problems in the whole area.

Since I couldn't go online, I decided to clean my room, which I hadn't done for weeks. Later, I found my old skateboard in the garage and went outside for a while. In the evening, when the internet finally came back, I realised I hadn't missed it as much as I expected.

Zad. 4.

I was really annoyed at first because I couldn't message my friends or check anything online. I felt completely cut off from the world and didn't know what to do with myself.

4.2 (chłopak)

To be honest, I was stressed out. I had homework to upload and I was afraid the teacher would think I was lying about the internet problem.

4.3 (dziewczyna)

After a while, I actually felt relaxed. No notifications, no messages – just silence. I didn't expect that, but it was kind of nice.

4.4 (dziewczyna)

I was bored at the beginning, but then I realised I could finally do something different. I ended up playing board games with my brother.
